The Big Ship

Look! Look! I see a big ship!

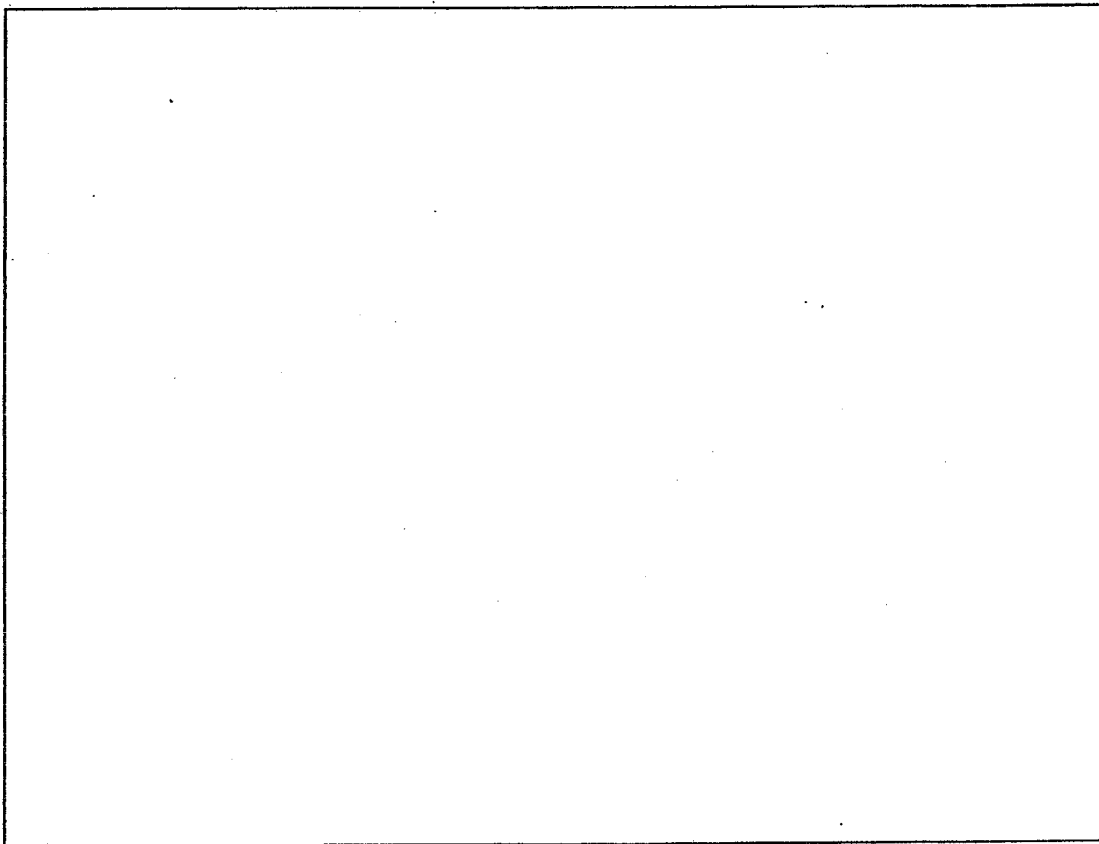

It is a brown ship on the cold, blue sea.

It has a long, white sail on the top.

I can see nine men on the ship.

This ship will sail over the sea for a long way.

It will sail to a new land.

The Race

Today is a good day.

The sun is out. You can run and run.

She can run with you.

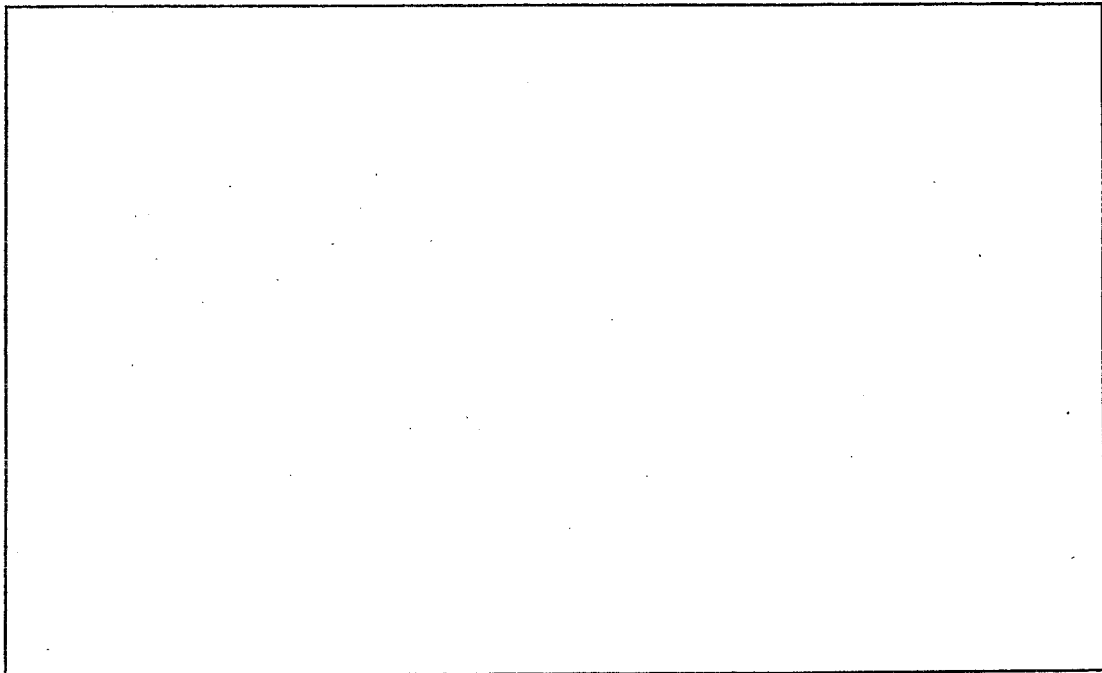

You can run to the top of the hill.

You can run up the street and by the school.

We can see you run now.

You will not be the last man.

You will win!

Ants

I like ants. They are good, little bugs.

Some are big and some are little.

All ants have three parts to the body.

They have six little legs.

The queen is like the mother ant.

At times, she can fly.

Some ants make a nest.

Some other ants dig in the earth for a home.

All ants work hard.

The New Child

I met a child at school today.

He is a good little boy to play with.

He is five and I am six years old. We like each other.

We like to play in the sand box. We dig and dig.

Then we like to run in the school yard. He can run so fast!

We play with the balls, too.

Today he lost his tooth at school!

He had to call his mother at home and say, "I lost my tooth!"

He cannot eat his apple now.

He will bring his tooth home to show her.

Our Earth

I love our good earth!

It is a good place for us to live in.

The grass is so green and the trees are so tall.

We can eat the good food of the rich, brown earth....

red apples, yellow corn and sweet oranges.

The water of the sea is cool and blue.

I have seen white snow and cold ice.

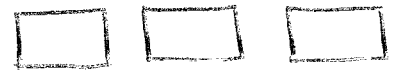

The earth has many flowers.

I like so many things about this land.

Today I will look and look for more good things to see.

Yes, this earth is a good home for us to live in.

Guess What I Saw!

I want to tell you something!

I saw something just now and I want you to see it !

You will like it so much! We cannot be late!

Ask your mother if she will let you come.

Take my hand and we will run fast!

Run down the street and past the yard.

Jump over the log. Run past the trees.

Run up to the top of the hill.

At last we are here. Look, do you see it?

We do not see it at all. Where did it go?

It was here a bit ago, but not now.

We are too late.

My Home

I like my new home. It is a good home.

It has a yard with a sand box and four big trees!

I can play in my yard all day long!

All year long, I will play ball in my yard.

My home has a big door with a pretty rug on the floor.

I have a good, soft bed to sleep in.

I have a stand by my bed for a book.

My home is on a good street, but I will not play in the street.

This is a good house for a child like me to live in.

Can you come over and play at my house?
